Open Call for an exhibition in BITCH universe

We encourage artists all over the world to apply with works for permanent exhibition inside the BITCH digital space

About:

Bitch is a desktop PC, that houses small physical exhibitions from its glass cabinet and operates an online exhibition space.

Bitch is at the same time a cryptocurrency miner that uses the electricity from the exhibition space it is exhibited to mine cryptocurrency.

The digital exhibition space is an online computer game, where guests can see the current exhibition, chat together, as well as walk around and discover former exhibitions.
